INTRODUCTION

These are the official rules and procedures for the Primetime Emmy Awards. Although published both on the Television Academy's website and in booklet form, the definitive version will always be the one on the website, because it can be updated and amended as necessary.

These rules have been reviewed for the 2011-2012 awards and, as specifically noted in the text (in bold), revised by the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences Board of Governors.

For clarification of rules and procedures, call the Academy's senior vice president of awards, John Leverence (818/754-2871), or the Primetime awards staff: Julie Shore (818/754-2874), Sheri Ebner (818/754-2881), Barrie Nedler (818/754-2879), Christopher Walters (818/754-2837) and Jessica Latiolait (818/754-2857).

The Primetime Awards Committee, on behalf of the Board of Governors, is the final arbiter of any and all Primetime Emmy Awards eligibility matters.

Category placement will not be finalized until 72 hours prior to the publication of the nominating ballots. Entry in a category does not assure placement in that category. If you have a question about category placement, please contact the awards department.

ENTRY PROCEDURES

- 1a. Entry Deadline: Entries will be accepted online until May 4, 2012. All entries, whether the program has already aired or will air between May 4 and May 31, MUST be entered by May 4. For example, a program still in editing without a final music score must be entered by the editor and the composer by May 4. If upon viewing the completed program the entrant decides (by 5:00 PM on May 31) to withdraw the entry, the entry fee will be refunded.
- 1b. DVD/Tape Deadline: All program category entries and certain individual achievement categories and areas require DVD/tape masters to be submitted by the entry deadline. If the program or episode has not aired, or if the DVDs are not ready by the entry deadline of May 4, 2012, the final deadline for DVDs to be submitted to the Television Academy will be May 18, 2012.
2. Entries made before the deadline may be modified by the entrant until 5:00 PM on May 31, 2012. An example of a modification would be the replacement of the episode submitted for judging with another eligible episode.
- 3a. Programs and individual achievements unexpectedly scheduled for airing after the entry deadline (May 4) has passed may be entered until 5:00 PM on May 31, 2012 (e.g., a program scheduled for a June airing that was rescheduled for May).
- 3b. Programs and individual achievements in preparation but not completed by the time of the entry deadline (May 4) must be entered on or before that deadline. For example, a program still in editing without a final music score must be entered by the editor and the composer by May 4. If upon viewing the completed program the entrant decides (by 5:00 PM on May 31) to withdraw the entry, the entry fee will be refunded.
4. To be eligible, a program must have its "premiere" airing during the eligibility period. This "premiere" must be the first airing and promoted and reviewed as such. Preview screenings, which are aired late-night or posted on the web and are not promoted or reviewed, will not qualify as an eligible "premiere."
5. Producers may enter their programs for nominations in all categories except in the music categories, where the entry must be made by the individual. Individuals may enter themselves (and their team, if the entry is for a team achievement) for specific individual awards.
6. Producers may submit one or more program entries per program category or area. In most categories/areas an eligible individual or the identical team may enter multiple achievements per category or area if the achievements are for different programs (Categories excluded from this rule are directing in comedy and drama series, directing for movies/miniseries, directing for variety series and specials and technical direction for series and movies/miniseries or specials.). In the case where a producer makes an entry for an eligible individual or team, it is the producer's responsibility to inform them that the entry has been made on their behalf.
7. It is a general principle of this competition that a single achievement is limited to a single bid for an Emmy, i.e., every entrant is eligible to place his/her achievement in only one appropriate category. Final approval of category placement is determined by the Primetime Awards Committee.

8. In the case of team entries, entrants must submit the complete team, not just themselves or partial teams. Only those individuals who have made a significant and substantive contribution to the achievement entered are eligible.

PLEASE NOTE: In 2004, the Board of Governors of the Academy set numerical caps on the number of team members in numerous categories of the competition. Peer Group Executive Committees may recommend cap waivers to the Primetime Awards Committee in cases where the rule of substantial contribution (above) calls for their consideration.

9. It is often the case that an agent, manager, studio, production company or broadcast entity will facilitate the entry by submitting the form, but the individual who is listed as the "entrant" is considered by the Academy to be the person who has made the entry. Please note: Submissions for all music categories can be made by the individuals or creative teams seeking an Emmy nomination only. No producer or awards representative submissions.

10. Eligibility is based on screen credit. Producers may not alter an individual's screen credit in order to qualify the individual for Emmy eligibility.

11. Next of kin may make an entry on behalf of a deceased relative.

12. Correct entry information is the responsibility of the entrant. The Academy is not liable for incorrect ballot listings that are the result of incorrect information on the entry forms.

13. If an entry is made in the wrong category and the error is not discovered until it goes to the voters on the nomination ballot, it will be disqualified. If the Academy makes an error that leads to an incorrect categorization on the nomination ballot, a correction will be issued.

14. Ineligible entries will be disqualified at any stage of the competition.

ENTRY FEES

1. Commercial entry fees:

There is a flat $250 fee for all commercial entries.

2. Individual achievement entry fees:

The fee for individual entries is $200.

For small teams (2-4 entrants), the fee is $400.

For medium teams (5-8 entrants), the fee is $500.

For large teams (9-10 entrants), the fee is $600.

Teams of 11 or more pay a flat fee of $60 per person.

3. Program entry fees:

For small teams (2-4 entrants), the fee is $600.

For medium teams (5-8 entrants), the fee is $700.

For large teams (9 or more entrants), the fee is $800.

4. Interactive Media Programming fees:

For an individual(s) submitting as the Official Entrant the fee is $400.

For a company(s) submitting as the Official Entrant the fee is $600.

(See below for more details).

NOTE: Any Academy member of an individual/group entry has his/her entry fee waived for their first entry. For example, if there is one entrant, the entry fee for that person is $400, and it is waived. If there are two entrants, the entry fee for each person is $200, and it is waived for each member. If there are three entrants, the entry fee is $133 for each person, and it is waived for each member. If there are four entrants, the entry fee is $100 for each person, and it is waived for each member.

Any Academy member making a company/partnership entry has the $600 fee waived. For example, if there is one company, the entry fee for that company is $600, and it is waived. If there are two companies, the entry fee for each company is $300, and it is waived for each member making an entry on behalf of his/her company. If there are three companies, the entry fee is $200 for each company, and it is waived for each member making an entry on behalf of his/her company. If there are four companies, the entry fee is $150 for each company, and it is waived for each member making an entry on behalf of his/her company.

MEMBER FEES

1a. Each member submitting an entry will need to enter his/her member ID number on the entrant page of the online form to receive their entry fee discount (maximum of two entries are covered by the member discount). The member's first entry is discounted at 100% and their second entry is discounted at 50%. Additional entries will require the full entry fee. Please note: For an entry with a single entrant, the entire entry fee is waived. For an entry with multiple entrants, only the member's portion of the entry fee is waived. Membership cards are non-transferable.

1b. In the case of a team entry, be it for an individual achievement or program, each team member may enter his/her membership ID number to cover his/her percentage of the entry fee. The member ID number can be found on the front of your membership card. If you do not have your membership card, please log into your account at www.emmys.tv or you can email the membership department at membership@emmys.org.

2. Non-members pay their percentage based on the number of team members. If a non-member entrant (or team member included on the entry) joins the Academy prior to April 27, his/her entry fee will be waived.

PLEASE NOTE: If a non-member of the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences is announced as a nominee on July 19, he/she will receive one complimentary nominee ticket to the awards presentation and ball (members receive two complimentary tickets). Creative Arts non-member nominees may purchase one guest ticket to the presentation and ball for $250, Telecast non-member nominees may purchase one guest ticket to the presentation and ball for $500, or non-member nominees may choose to join the Television Academy (membership fee $185) to receive a guest ticket at no extra charge. Non-members may also join prior to April 27 and have their percentage of the entry fee waived.

3. A member entering a commercial may enter their membership ID number to cover the $250 entry fee for either the eligible ad agency or the production company.
4. NATAS memberships are not valid as entry waivers.

CRITERIA FOR ELIGIBILITY

The 2001 rules book language stating that only programs "originated for" television are Emmy-eligible was changed in 2002 to "originally aired on" television (including by way of example so-called basic cable, pay cable, pay television, pay-per-view, interactive cable and broadband) in order to clarify that the Academy does not include in its eligibility test the development history of a program.

The eligibility of individual achievements will remain as it has been in the past:

- a. eligibility will be considered on a case-by-case basis;
- b. other than performances, individual achievements originated for or derived/adapted from a medium other than television (e.g., the costumes for a Metropolitan Opera production subsequently taped for broadcast) are ineligible;
- c. individual achievements originated for television or simultaneously originated for both television and another medium (e.g., costumes for a joint production of a program designed to be presented live on stage and live/recorded on television) are eligible.

1. Programs (and individual achievements within them) are eligible for nomination if they were originally aired or originally transmitted during the eligibility year in any primetime period (6:00 PM - 2:00 AM) (i) by broadcast to at least 50% of the total potential U.S. television audience or, (ii) by pay/basic cable transmissions (including by way of example so-called basic cable, pay cable, pay television, pay-per-view, interactive cable and broadband) to markets representing at least 50% or more of households in the United States.

2. To be eligible, a program must have its "premiere" airing during the eligibility period. This "premiere" must be the first airing and promoted and reviewed as such. Preview screenings, which are aired late-night or posted on the internet and are not promoted or reviewed as such, will not qualify as an eligible "premiere."

3. Where there is a program that is eligible for placement in more than one category, the producer has discretion (excluding nonfiction/reality programs) with the final approval of the Awards Committee to enter the program and its individual achievements in any category where they are eligible. The premiere season category placement of comedy and drama series determines and locks in the subsequent years' placements, i.e., if a series in its initial year is placed in comedy series, it cannot in a subsequent year change to the drama series category. The placement of a program automatically directs the placement of all individual achievement entries, e.g., if a program is placed in comedy series, performers must follow in comedy series categories (or, where there is no such direct correspondence, the most appropriate category).

4a. Game shows that fall short of Primetime and Daytime eligibility because they lack more than 50% penetration in either Daytime or Primetime time periods (but have a total Primetime-plus-Daytime penetration of greater than 50%) are eligible to enter in either the Daytime or Primetime Emmys (in accordance with eligibility rule 4b). Producers of programs that have both a daytime and nighttime version must choose one or the other for entry in either the Daytime or Primetime Emmy Awards. A syndication market listing is required for all syndicated entries.

4b. Game shows initially broadcast in primetime during the hours of 8:00 PM and 2:00 AM Eastern Time and the corresponding primetime period in other time zones are to be judged and presented as a part of the Primetime Emmy Awards competition and ceremony. Game shows broadcast prior to 8:00 PM are eligible in the Daytime Emmy Awards.

4c. Game shows initially transmitted at 8PM ET on a single feed network, e.g., via the internet or some cable platforms, reach less than half of the country at 8PM ET and more than half the country prior to 8PM ET (7PM CT + 6PM MT + 5PM PT), and therefore they qualify as national programs in the Daytime rather than the Primetime competition.

5. Game shows and any program that gives a prize or is itself a contest and/or competition must enter as a Reality-Competition Program, or Children's Nonfiction, Reality or Reality-Competition Program if the program is a competition or game show designed for children ages 2-16.

6. Extended-length episodes of series may only be entered in the series area and may not be entered as movies, miniseries or specials.

7. Foreign television production is ineligible unless it is the result of a co-production (both financially and creatively) between U.S. and foreign partners, which precedes the start of production, and has a commitment to be shown on U.S. television prior to the start of production. The producer of any production produced in the U.S. or outside the U.S. as a co-production between U.S. and foreign partners in a language that is substantially (i.e. 50% or more) in a language other than English shall have the discretion to enter the production and its individual achievements in any category where they are eligible in the Primetime Emmy Awards competition or, if permitted, in the Awards competition of the International Academy of Television Arts & Sciences, but not both.

8. A program that had eligibility in a prior awards year or another Emmy competition or is a foreign acquisition without benefit of a domestic co-production can not be re-introduced into eligibility in the current awards year, even though it may have been modified with new footage, sound track, musical score, etc.

9. Television programs that are generally exhibited in motion picture theatres are not eligible. Television programs that are offered on home video or for sale on the internet prior to their first television airing or internet posting are not eligible, unless it is within seven (7) days of the program's original air date. Showing a television program at a film festival or in limited theatrical release of not more than seven (7) days in not more than two cities for the purpose of fulfilling awards eligibility (e.g., The Oscars) or financial requirements of a distributor or financier does not disqualify an otherwise eligible program. Showing a foreign television program that otherwise qualifies as an eligible foreign co-production under these Rules shall not be disqualified because of a prior limited theatrical release.

10. Telethons aired for the purpose of raising money for political parties are ineligible.
11. No program (along with its individual achievements) previously entered in any other national Emmy competition (Daytime, News and Documentary, Sports, Engineering or International) is eligible for the Primetime competition.
12. Programs which, although broadcast during primetime hours, are essentially "extensions" of a daytime series may not be entered in either the Primetime or Daytime Emmy competitions. In determining whether a submitted program is an "extension" of a daytime series, the Primetime Awards Committee will consider such factors as: whether the running time of the program submitted differs from that of the series episodes; whether writers and cast members are different from those on the series; whether there are differences in the program format; whether the story content is designed as a complete arc containing a beginning, middle and end rather than an open-ended serial-style, and similar considerations.
- 13a. If a series (excluding nonfiction and animation) is cancelled or discontinued and five or less episodes first aired in the current eligibility year, the series is ineligible.
- 13b. Hanging Episodes eligibility: If an ongoing series has enough episodes in the current eligibility year to qualify as a series and has one or more episodes that are part of the series season that fall into the subsequent eligibility year, the "hanging episodes" that are in a contiguous rollout on the same distribution platform join in eligibility the already-qualified-as-eligible episodes of the series, as long as the hanging episodes air prior to the return of the first round ballots. For example, a comedy series that regularly airs on a weekly basis that has six episodes in the 2012 eligibility year and has two more episodes of its series season airing subsequently and on the same platform in the 2013 eligibility year would enter all eight episodes in 2012 eligibility. On the other hand, a comedy series that has two episodes in the 2012 eligibility year and six more episodes airing subsequently on the same platform in the 2013 eligibility year would enter the eight episodes only in 2013. They would not be allowed to "sneak" the six episodes, e.g., post them on the internet or air them in an obscure time spot, in order to qualify the series in 2012.
14. Clip shows, year-enders, best-ofs and anniversary specials must be entered as specials. Previously-aired material from the past two eligibility years is limited to no more than 35% of the program's total running time in order to be eligible. (Inclusion of material originally aired prior to June 1, 2010 is considered "historic" and does not negatively affect eligibility.)
15. A "special" episode of a primetime series (excluding variety series and nonfiction series) may be entered as a stand-alone special in a non-series category or area, but only if it was not part of the regular series order from the network or involves a significant and substantive format change throughout, e.g., from whole-episode live-action to whole-episode animation. A variety series or nonfiction series episode that diverges from the series norm may not enter as a separate, stand-alone special, even if it was not part of the regular series order from the network.
16. Syndicated programs that have reached a cumulative audience of at least 50% of the total potential U.S. television audience during the eligibility period, but not 50% exclusively in Daytime or Primetime, may enter either in Daytime or Primetime, but not in both. A producer may enter the program where it had the highest percentage of original airtimes, or where its appropriate category appears. A syndication market listing must accompany all syndicated entries.

17. If a program is comprised of more than one segment, an individual entrant must enter his or her segment only.

18. Where there is a minimum percentage of screen time for an achievement to gain eligibility, and that minimum is not met, the achievement is ineligible to enter elsewhere in the competition.

NOMINATION VOTING PROCEDURES

1. Ballots will be posted on the Academy's website on June 11. Members will receive only their voting sheets by mail. Voters who have not received their voting sheets by June 15 should call the Academy 818/754-2800. The deadline for Ernst & Young to receive your nomination voting sheet(s) is June 28 by 5:00 PM. Voting sheets received after this date will not be tabulated.

2. All members are entitled to vote for best program nominations. Voters may cast up to ten votes in each program category/area. This rule does not include animated programs (only Animation Branch members will receive the nominating ballot for animated programming).

3. Peer groups and membership branches receive ballots pertinent to their membership (see Appendix for breakdown).

4. HYPHENATE BALLOTS: Ballots outside of their peer groups and branches may be requested by members whose credits would allow them voting privileges in those peer groups and branches, e.g., a producer member who also has the requisite writing credits may additionally request a writing ballot. The deadline for applying for additional ballots is April 16. Information will be sent to current members in March. If you do not receive this mailing, please call the membership department at 818/754-2800. Members must reapply each year to receive hyphenate ballot(s).

NOMINATION PROCEDURES

1. In general, there will be five nominations in each category and area (an exception being comedy and drama series, miniseries/movie, variety series, reality and reality-competition programs and comedy and drama series lead, supporting and guest performers where there will be six nominations in each category).

2. The number of nominations will not exceed 1/3 the number of the category or area entries, with the understanding that there will always be a minimum of two nominations per category or area.

3. Where there are less than five entries in a category or area, all entries will be screened by the appropriate peer group for nomination. Any entry that receives nine-tenths approval will receive a nomination.

4. Where there is a single entry, the appropriate peer group executive committee will determine whether the entry had sufficient votes to merit a nomination.
5. In the case of ties, the closest number to five will prevail, unless there are fewer than three or more than seven nominations, in which case the Primetime Awards Committee will determine the number of nominations.
 - 5a. Ties that include the possibility of the total number of nominations being 1 number from the target number of nominations break in favor of the higher possibility, e.g., 4 or 6 breaks to 6.
 - 5b. Ties that include the possibility of the total number of nominations being 2 numbers from the target number of nominations break in favor of the lower possibility, e.g., 3 or 7 breaks to 3.
 - 5c. Ties that include the possibility of the total number of nominations being 3 numbers from the target number of nominations are resolved by the Awards Committee, e.g., 2 or 8 does not automatically break and must go to the Awards Committee for a final decision.
 - 5d. In a category where the ideal number of nominations is five and the fifth and sixth top vote-getters are within 2% of each other, both are included in nomination.
6. Nominated achievements may be withdrawn from nomination by a sole nominee or all nominated members of a team. Individual nominees on a team may withdraw themselves, but the nomination will stand as long as at least one team member remains.
7. Nominees will be announced at 5:35 AM from the Academy's Leonard H. Goldenson Theatre on July 19, 2012.
8. Errors and Omissions: Except for cases where the omission of a name is an Academy error, there will be a flat fee of $250 for each individual added between July 19 and August 2. The final date for errors and omissions (including the names of eligible individuals not on the list exchanged for nominated names on the list) will be August 2, 2012.
9. Each nominee agrees that any film, tape recording, screenshot or supplemental printed material that is furnished to the Academy in connection with an entry may be retained by the Academy for file, reference and archival purposes and may be viewed partially or in its entirety for judging purposes. All of or portions (i.e. "clips") from any such film, tape recording, screenshot or supplemental printed material may be used on or in connection with the presentation and/or broadcast and/or other exhibition of any Emmy Awards Ceremony, including but not limited to any internet exhibition of such films, tape recordings, screenshots or clips from the same and/or supplemental printed material and use in connection with promotional announcements or other promotional activities for any of the foregoing; use of such films, tape recordings, screenshots or clips from the same and/or supplemental printed material shall be subject to the clearance of any parties other than the nominee that may be required.
10. Nominee tickets: Nominees who are members of the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences will receive two complimentary tickets to the appropriate awards presentation and dinner. Creative Arts non-member nominees may purchase one guest ticket to the presentation and ball for $250, Telecast non-member nominees may purchase one guest ticket to the presentation and ball for $500, or non-member nominees may choose to join the Television Academy (membership fee $185) and receive one guest ticket at no extra charge.

EMMY JUDGING PANELS

1. The final judging will take place August 6 – August 31. Volunteers from the Academy's membership will be asked to serve as judges. A call for judges will be sent to national active Academy members in late June.

PLEASE NOTE: For the final, at-home judging panels, members may not participate on a comedy or drama series, variety series, nonfiction series, reality or reality-competition program panel for the same category more than two consecutive years. Voters who have served for two consecutive years judging the same series program category would have to sit out a year judging that category. They may, of course, serve on any other panel for which their membership categorization allows their participation.

2. Panelists are solicited from the Academy's national membership.

3. No panelist may have a conflict of interest judging any of the nominated achievements.

4. National active members from all peer groups are eligible to serve on the program panels (except animated program panels).

5. Judging of individual achievement categories is restricted to peer judging (e.g., only writer members may judge writing categories, only director members may judge directing categories, etc.) unless otherwise indicated in the appendix of the rules book.

6. Peer groups determine the judging systems for their branch. Emmy judging can be a ratings-score system based on categories of evaluation, or preferential voting in which the nominations are ranked.

7. Drama and comedy series are required to submit any six eligible episodes for the judging panels. Program nomination episodes must be the usual running time of the series episodes. Extended-length episodes will count as two episodes.

PLEASE NOTE: The minimum number of episodes that need to be broadcast during the eligibility year to qualify for all series (excluding Nonfiction Series, Children's Nonfiction, Reality or Reality-Competition Program and Animated Series) will be six.

8. The length of an episode submitted for individual achievement may exceed, by as much as double, the standard running time of the series episodes. If the episode airs in two parts, both parts must have the same episode title and may be selected (excluding Special Visual Effects for a Series) as long as they do not cumulatively exceed twice the standard running time of the series episodes.

9. Upon nomination, every Emmy Award is conditioned upon the delivery of two correctly prepared DVDs of the nominated achievement to the Academy, unless otherwise indicated.

PLEASE NOTE: DVDs must be of acceptable quality for viewing, with correct audio and video reproduction. Unless otherwise noted, DVDs must be in the same form and content as originally broadcast, minus commercial breaks. Failure to provide DVDs will result in forfeiture of the opportunity to win an Emmy.

10. Back-up DVDs for each nominated achievement will be retained by the Academy for deposit in the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences/UCLA television archives.

EMMY WINNERS

1. All Emmy judging panel votes are tabulated by the accountants, and winners are announced at the Creative Arts Awards on September 15 and the Primetime Telecast on September 23. The Emmy will be presented to the individual(s) specifically listed with each nomination. In the event that more than one eligible individual is credited with the winning achievement, each individual will receive an Emmy.
2. The Emmy may be accepted by a designee in those cases where the awardee has died or become permanently disabled.
3. Because there are often changes in the rosters of nominees between the nomination press release and the winner press release, the winner press release will be considered the final and definitive source of winner information.

RULES FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE EMMY® STATUETTE

1. The Emmy® statuette is the property of and all rights are reserved by the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences.
2. The Emmy® statuette may not be reproduced or used in any commercial manner unless otherwise permitted by the Academy, it being understood that possession of the same is solely for the benefit of the recipient and the recipient's heirs or successors in interest.
3. If a recipient or the recipient's heir or successor in interest proposes to sell or otherwise dispose of the Emmy® statuette, such persons shall be obligated to return the statuette to the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences which will retain the same in storage in memory of the recipient.

Citations may be requested by Emmy-winning individuals in recognition and appreciation of those individuals - generally assistants - who materially contributed to the Emmy-winning achievement.

4. Commemorative Emmys

Emmy-winning PROGRAMS may order one commemorative Emmy Award on behalf of the studio, production company, or network that was principally involved with the winning program. Commemorative Emmys can not be ordered for individuals. (Total of three commemorative Emmys may be ordered for the winning program.)

The intent of issuing commemorative Emmys is to give studios, production companies and networks the opportunity to display, in a corporate or public space, the Emmy Awards for programs that they produced or broadcast.

All commemorative Emmy orders are subject to the approval of the Primetime Awards Committee.

EMMY AWARDS

CATEGORIES

AREAS

JURIED AWARDS

AWARDS DEFINITIONS

1. Category

The definition of a category award is a single, must-give award that is the result of head-to-head competition with the highest vote-getter receiving an Emmy.

2. Area

An awards area is non-competitive. Each nomination is considered on its own terms without regard to the other nominations in the area. The voting procedures for area awards are listed under each specific area award.

3. Juried

In a juried award, all entrants are screened by a jury of appropriate branch members and one, more than one or no entry is awarded an Emmy. There are no nominations. The winner(s), if any, are announced prior to the awards presentation. Deliberations are open and arguments pro and con the giving of an Emmy to an entrant is discussed. At the conclusion of the deliberation on each entry, the jury votes on the question, "Is this entry worthy of an Emmy award - yea or nay?" Only those with unanimous approval win. If there is a single dissenter in a panel comprised of no more than twelve jurors who cannot be convinced to change his/her vote, the chair may rule that the award will be given in spite of that single dissent. Two dissenters in a panel comprised of no more than 24 jurors may be over-ruled (with a single dissenter added to each increment of twelve, e.g., three for a panel of no more than 36, four for a panel of no more than 48, etc.)

4. Rule of Fourteen

If for two consecutive years the Board of Governors identifies that there are (or would have been had the category been in place) fourteen or more entries that define such a significant, specialized and distinct achievement that they no longer are represented adequately within an existing category, they may, at their discretion, separate these entries into a new category.

If for two consecutive years there are less than fourteen entries in an existing category, they may, at the Board's discretion, be combined into a related category (which, in consultation with the applicable peer group, could become an area).

ENTRY INSTRUCTIONS

Deadlines: Entries will be accepted online until May 4, 2012. All entries, whether the program has already aired or will air between May 4 and May 31, MUST be entered by May 4. For example, a program still in editing without a final music score must be entered by the editor and the composer by May 4. If upon viewing the completed program the entrant decides (by 5:00 PM on May 31) to withdraw the entry, the entry fee will be refunded.

Eligibility: Programs (and individual achievements within them) are eligible for nomination if they were originally aired or originally transmitted during the eligibility year of June 1, 2011 – May 31, 2012 in any primetime period (6:00 PM - 2:00 AM) (i) by broadcast to at least 50% of the total potential U.S. television audience or, (ii) by pay/basic cable transmissions (including by way of example so-called basic cable, pay cable, pay television, pay-per-view, interactive cable and broadband) to markets representing at least 50% or more of households in the United States. Please also refer to the “hanging episodes rule” on page 15.

Online Entry Submission: Entries can be made online by an eligible individual (or representative, except in the music categories, where only the entrant is allowed to make the entry) entering himself/herself or his/her team. Please complete all information that applies to your entry. If you are using your address for the entrant please list “c/o your name” in address line one. Contact information will remain confidential. DEADLINE: DVDs are due by the entry deadline (May 4). If the DVDs are not ready or available by the entry deadline, the final deadline for receipt will be May 18, 2012. Any entry submitted without DVDs will be disqualified.

Please note: An animated series comprised of multiple short episodes (e.g., 3 min., 7 min., 11 min.) may be individually entered in Category 4 – Short-format Animated Program. However, if this option is chosen, you are excluded from entering in another program category (e.g., Animated Program, Children's Program).

Category 3 OUTSTANDING ANIMATED PROGRAM

For a single episode of a series or for a special

Emmy(s) to the producer(s) whose credit is Executive Producer, Co-Executive Producer, Supervising Producer or Producer, and who is responsible for all creative phases of the animation production process from pre-production to post-production; the writer(s) whose credit is "story by," "teleplay by" or "written by;" the director(s) and the individual(s) principally responsible for slugging the storyboards and timing the sheets. All eligibility is subject to approval by the animation peer group executive committee.

Additionally, entrants must include a paper copy of the beginning and end credits that appear on the submitted episode or program.

Clarification: In cases where the entry was created by a separate show runner and production house, numerical caps shall be set for those directors, writers and producers eligible on the episode or special chosen for entry, as follows:

- a maximum of four directors
- a maximum of three writers
- a maximum of fourteen producers

The total number of entrants is capped at 21 without restrictions based on a producer's employer (either the production company or the animation house) - with all eligibility subject to approval by the animation peer group executive committee. And because some producers may contribute to the entry as writers, the show-runner making the entry may list them as "producer/writer" among the three writing slots, with those producer-writers who did not contribute to writing the entry entered among the fourteen slots for the producers.

PLEASE NOTE: The number of nominations for half-hour and hour programs will be proportionate according to the entries. For example, if there are 30 entries for half-hour programs and 20 entries for hour programs, the five nominees will consist of the top three half-hour program vote-getters and the top two hour program vote-getters.

Category 4 OUTSTANDING SHORT-FORMAT ANIMATED PROGRAM

Emmy(s) to the producer(s) whose credit is Executive Producer, Co-Executive Producer, Supervising Producer or Producer, and who is responsible for all creative phases of the animation production process from pre-production to post-production; the writer(s) whose credit is "story by," "teleplay by" or "written by;" the director(s) and the individual(s) principally responsible for slugging the storyboards and timing the sheets. All eligibility is subject to approval by the animation peer group executive committee.

PLEASE NOTE: the expected running time for short-format programming is less than 15 minutes.

ELIGIBILITY RULE: In cases where the entry was created by a separate show runner and production house, numerical caps shall be set for those directors, writers and producers eligible on the miniseries, movie or special chosen for entry, as follows:

- a maximum of four directors
- a maximum of three writers
- a maximum of fourteen producers

The total number of entrants is capped at 21 without restrictions based on a producer's employer (either the production company or the animation house) – with all eligibility subject to approval by the animation peer group executive committee. And because some producers may contribute to the entry as writers, the show-runner making the entry may list them as “producer/writer” among the three writing slots, with those producer-writers who did not contribute to writing the entry entered among the fourteen slots for the producers.

Additionally, entrants must include a paper copy of the beginning and end credits that appear on the submitted episode or program.

PLEASE NOTE: Nominations will be determined by the votes of the members of the animation branch. Members of other branches, whose production credits would ordinarily give them hyphenate voting status in animation, will not receive the nominating ballot, although they may transfer their membership to the animation peer group by April 16 in order to receive the animation ballot.

Members of the animation branch and animation hyphenates will receive invitations to serve on the at-home panels that pick the Emmy recipients, with the understanding that those who would have a conflict of interest judging the nominations would not be impaneled.

The animation content of either a fully animated or animation and live-action program must be at least 65% new animation to qualify the program for entry in an animation program category.

An eligible individual making the entry may choose to enter an animated program in a category either according to medium (animation) or content (comedy, drama, etc.).

If entered in a live-action program category, producers and the animation director credited on the episode chosen for the Emmy Judging Panel screening are Emmy-eligible. Writers enter separately in an appropriate category, e.g., if the program enters the comedy series program category, the writers enter the comedy series writing category.

Animated series are nominated for a single episode. If entered in an animation program category, only those producers, directors and writers credited on the episode chosen for screening are Emmy-eligible.

ART DIRECTION AWARDS

Emmy(s) to production designer(s), art director(s) and set decorator(s), if applicable
Entries are capped at a maximum of three entrants.

An individual or the identical team may enter multiple achievements in an art direction category if the achievements are for different programs.

Please Note: Peer Group Executive Committees may recommend cap waivers to the Primetime Awards Committee in cases where substantial contribution calls for their consideration.

NOTE: Initial entry may be submitted by any team member and must include the whole team.

The Peer Group Executive Committee will review all screen credits for eligibility on submitted programs. All eligibility is subject to final and definitive review by the PGEC to determine principal creative contributions. The decision of the PGEC is definitive and final.

PLEASE NOTE: All art direction awards are area awards. An Area Award is non-competitive. In the final judging round each nomination is considered on its own terms without regard to the other nominations in the area. Any nomination with at least 90% approval receives an Emmy. If none of the nominations receives 90% approval, the nomination with the highest approval receives an Emmy.

DVD REQUIREMENTS AND INSTRUCTIONS:

Two DVDs NOT COPY PROTECTED are required of the complete program/episode AT THE TIME OF ENTRY.

EDITING INSTRUCTIONS: Please do not include bars and tones, and replace all commercials and other interstitials with 2-5 seconds of black. ("For Your Consideration" chyrons are okay.) If sampled musical phrases are mixed together to form the entire work, and a single phrase or phrases are perceived as the main character of the composition or theme, that entry is ineligible.

In all categories, the eligibility recommendation to the Primetime Awards Committee will be at the sole discretion of the Music Peer Group Executive Committee, and an entry may be disqualified at any time during the contest period if that entry is found to be ineligible, substantially unoriginal, or in categories 46 and 47, is deemed to be less than a substantial body of music in the form of dramatic score.

As a condition of submitting an entry in all music categories, each entrant who is a member of the Academy, agrees to serve on a home viewing panel during both the first round, nominating phase of the competition, and the second final Emmy judging round. No panelist will be required to view and judge more than ten hours of entries in either round. An entrant may submit a request to the Music Peer Group Executive Committee to be excused from serving as a judge if unusual or unexpected circumstances arise immediately before or during either of the judging periods.

Since Academy Music Peer Group members agree to serve on judging panels as a condition of entry into the competition, and since all entries submitted by both members and non-members are viewed by those panels to determine the nominees, non-members are only allowed to submit entries in any two award years during a five year period.

Non-members who wish to submit a third entry within a five year period must apply for Academy Music Peer Group membership. Only non-members who do not meet the qualifications for membership will be allowed to submit an entry in a third year. Please note that all previous Emmy nominees are automatically qualified for membership under Academy membership rules.

The entries for categories 46 (music composition - series), 47 (music composition – long-form) and 48 (music direction) must submit ten DVDs of the complete program and ten copies of complete cue sheets, which clearly list all music cues and their composer(s) and/or lyricist(s). An incomplete or unclear cue sheet could result in disqualification of the entry. The DVDs must be in the same form and content as originally broadcast, minus commercial breaks.

DVD REQUIREMENTS FOR MUSIC SUBMISSIONS:

Ten DVDs (not copy protected) of the complete program must be submitted by the entry deadline (May 4) for the following three music categories. Please do not include bars and tones, and replace all commercials and other interstitials with 2-5 seconds of black.

For a single episode of a regular series

An original dramatic score is a substantial body of music written specifically for the program by the submitting composer(s).

Emmy(s) to credited composer(s)

The Emmy is intended to be an award for individual achievement. In the case of submissions entered by co-composers, or a team of composers, the “substantial body of music” rule will be used to validate the eligibility of all additional individual entrants, based on the cue sheet that has been submitted with the entry, and if necessary, a questionnaire, which will be provided after the entries are received and verified by the Academy.

Category 47 OUTSTANDING MUSIC COMPOSITION FOR A MINISERIES, MOVIE OR A SPECIAL (ORIGINAL DRAMATIC SCORE)

For a single episode of a miniseries, movie or a special

An original dramatic score is a substantial body of music written specifically for the program by the submitting composer(s).

Emmy(s) to credited composer(s)

The Emmy is intended to be an award for individual achievement. In the case of submissions entered by co-composers, or a team of composers, the “substantial body of music” rule will be used to validate the eligibility of all additional individual entrants, based on the cue sheet that has been submitted with the entry, and if necessary, a questionnaire, which will be provided after the entries are received and verified by the Academy.

Category 48 OUTSTANDING MUSIC DIRECTION

It is the responsibility of the music director to bring the program into a unified whole by making or supervising the following: composing, transitions, themes or underscore, arranging original or pre-existing material for the given orchestra or band, rehearsing the performers and overseeing music that needs to be pre-recorded. In many cases, the music director will also assist in the post-production mixing of the music for the show.

PLEASE NOTE: This category excludes from eligibility:

- Music Supervisors
- The conductor of a concert or symphonic program being telecast
- The conductor of a program which is eligible to be, or is entered in, either of the dramatic underscore categories
- The composer who conducts his own dramatic underscore for a program which is eligible to be, or is entered in, either of the dramatic underscore categories

However, the composer of a musical (a program substantially comprised of songs) who is also its musical director may enter in either a music composition category or in music direction, but may not enter in both categories.

Category 49 OUTSTANDING ORIGINAL MUSIC AND LYRICS

For an original song (which must include both music and lyrics), whether for a single episode of a regular series, miniseries, movie or a special. Both music and lyrics must be clearly audible and intelligible, and there must be a substantive rendition (not necessarily visually presented) of both lyric and melody.

In the case of submissions entered by co-composers/lyricists, or a team, a Music and Lyrics questionnaire, which will be provided after the entries are received and verified by the Academy, may be used to validate the eligibility of all additional individual entrants, in addition to the cue sheet that has been submitted with the entry.

Emmy(s) to credited composer(s) and lyricist(s)
Arrangers, assistants and associates are ineligible.

Submitted DVDs should include the song and enough additional footage before and after the song to give the judges a sense of its context, along with a brief log line of the scene where the song appears.

In the case of submissions entered by co-composers/lyricists, or a team, a Main Title Theme Music questionnaire, which will be provided after the entries are received and verified by the Academy, may be used to validate the eligibility of all additional individual entrants, in addition to the cue sheet that has been submitted with the entry.

Emmy(s) to credited composer(s) and/or lyricist(s)

Arrangers, assistants and associates are ineligible

Eligible submissions must be at least 15 seconds in length. Submitted DVDs should include the full main title at the top of the show and approximately the first minute of any episode, along with a brief log line of the nature of the show for context.

NOTE: Main title theme songs must enter in the Main Title Theme Music category.

PERFORMER AWARDS

ENTRY INFORMATION:

It is the decision of the entrant whether to enter as a lead or supporting performer. Series performers should enter according to their lead or supporting place in the body of work aired during the eligibility year. However, only those performers with "guest star" billing, or who are contracted as such, may enter in a "guest" performer category. While the performer's choice is generally approved, the Primetime Awards Committee determines the final category eligibility. All performers must enter categories that follow the categorization of their shows, e.g., if a show is entered as a comedy series, all performers must enter comedy series categories. Following up on the above example, this placement rule would hold true even if the episode being entered is a "dramatic" rather than a "comedic" episode.

A performer may enter multiple achievements in a performing category if the achievements are for different programs.

PHOTO REQUEST: By the entry deadline (May 4), all performers and hosts have the option of uploading a headshot. Headshots will appear next to the entrant's name on the ballot.

DVD REQUIREMENTS FOR GUEST PERFORMERS: Please see the DVD requirements listed above Category 63.

Guest performers must provide a 50 word or less log line of their storyline from the ONE episode chosen for entry and a paper copy of the on-air credits or a copy of their contract listing them as "Guest Star."

SUPPORTING PERFORMERS IN MOVIES OR MINISERIES: The minimum on-screen time for eligibility in the supporting performer categories for movies or miniseries is 5% of the total running time of a movie or a complete miniseries.

VOTING REQUIREMENT: All National Active members of the Performers peer group are required to serve on a final round, at-home judging panel once every four years.

Performers in comedic children's series may enter the comedy series performer categories; performers in dramatic children's series may enter the drama series performer categories.

Series regulars on sketch comedy shows may enter in either Supporting Actor in a Comedy Series or Supporting Actress in a Comedy Series.

Puppeteers may enter as a team (voice + manipulation) in the voice-over category or in a performer category according to the sex of their character.

Voice-over performers enter in the voice-over category.

Performers on classical music dance programs (whose names are not in the program title) are not eligible in special class program.

Cameo appearances in which the person plays himself/herself are not eligible for entry.

VARIETY PERFORMERS: There is no longer a category for individual performance in a variety program. The principle host for variety series and the principle host/performer for variety specials are eligible to be entered with the program in categories 71 and 72 and with “awards programs” and “not-exclusively-made-for-television variety event programs” entered in area 73a. In such instances, there will be no recognition of individuals but, rather, of the team's achievement. An Emmy statue will be given to the production company to be picked up on stage by a designated representative. Producers with an Emmy eligible title will have the opportunity to purchase a plaque to honor their contribution.

Area 77 OUTSTANDING NONFICTION SERIES

Emmy(s) to producers whose specific screen credit is Executive Producer, Co-Executive Producer, Supervising Producer, Producer, Produced by, Senior Producer, Series Producer on at least 50% of the eligible series episodes, and, if approved by the nonfiction peer group executive committee, the host/narrator.

Entries are limited to a maximum of seven entrants – petitions for additional producers are not allowed.

PLEASE NOTE: An Area Award is non-competitive. In the final judging round each nomination is considered on its own terms without regard to the other nominations in the area. Any nomination with at least 90% approval receives an Emmy. If none of the nominations receives 90% approval, the nomination with the highest approval receives an Emmy. There is a possibility of one or more than one Emmy awarded.

Nonfiction Series include documentaries, information programs, investigative programs, biographies and retrospectives. A minimum of three episodes must air within the current eligibility year in order to qualify as a series.

The following devices may be considered acceptable in the nonfiction category, with the caveat that programs using such devices are subject to review at the discretion of the Peer Group Executive Committee:

- Recreations, including the use of performers or animation, if such recreations are fact-based and used for illustration purposes.

- A set-up environment or event within a nonfiction program if the purpose of environment or event is to disseminate factual information without reality elements as defined under Reality Program.

Nonfiction Series area excludes all Reality and Reality-Competition programs.

A series with a continuing cast of characters, excluding experts or hosts, is considered a docu-soap and must enter the Reality Category. If the series is the result of an ongoing documentary process, and not the product of reality elements, the program may submit a waiver to be reviewed by the PGEC. Reality elements are defined under the Reality Program definition.

Log line: Producers must provide a log line of 50 words or less that describes the series.

Category 78 OUTSTANDING REALITY PROGRAM

Emmy(s) to producers whose specific screen credit is Executive Producer, Co-Executive Producer, Supervising Producer, Producer, Produced by, Senior Producer, Series Producer, and whose functions support those credits on at least 50% of the eligible series episodes.

Entries are limited to a maximum of 10 entrants – petitions for additional producers are not allowed.

For a series (minimum of six episodes) or a special.

Reality Programs include programs in which the premise, circumstances or situations are manipulated for the purpose of creating the program, unscripted reality programs, documentary-style reality shows and docu-soaps. The area excludes all game shows or any program that gives a prize or is itself a contest and/or competition.

The reality genre may include, but is not limited to, the following elements: programs that use a cast or that use a casting process to choose participants who play a role (as opposed to the selection of experts or subjects who are naturally part of the story, or who convey factual content); story arcs that are introduced, imposed and/or orchestrated by the program; melodramatic elements, including heightened interpersonal dynamics and character turmoil resulting from environments or events set-up by the program; and participant remuneration, including fees, services or merchandise (excluding professional stipends, honoraria and host fees).

Log line: Producers must provide a log-line of 50 words or less. For series, please provide a log line that describes the complete series.

Category 79 OUTSTANDING REALITY-COMPETITION PROGRAM

Entries are limited to a maximum of 16 entrants – petitions for additional producers are not allowed.

For a series (minimum of six episodes) or a special.

Reality-Competition Programs include all game shows or any program that gives a prize or is itself a contest and/or competition.

Log line: Producers must provide a log-line of 50 words or less. For series, please provide a log line that describes the complete series.

Juried 80 EXCEPTIONAL MERIT IN DOCUMENTARY FILMMAKING

This award is not meant to duplicate the recognition given nonfiction programming in the regular categories and areas of the competition; rather, its purpose is to both honor and encourage exceptional achievement in one or more of the traditional components of the filmmakers' art:

1. Profound social impact
2. Significant innovation of form
3. Remarkable mastery of filmmaking technique

Judging criteria will include: filmmaker's expressed vision, compelling power of storytelling, artistry or innovation of craft, and the capacity to inform, transport, impact, enlighten, and create a moving and indelible work that elevates the art of documentary filmmaking.

Entry procedures: All applicants for candidacy in this juried award will be required to submit a written statement that expresses the program's qualifications as a Documentary Film with Exceptional Merit.

DVD REQUIREMENTS: TEN DVDs (not copy protected) of the program being submitted are required at the time of entry.

EDITING INSTRUCTIONS: Please do not include bars and tones, and replace all commercials and other interstitials with 2-5 seconds of black. ("For Your Consideration" chyrons are okay.) The DVDs will be dubbed and sent to the judges as-is, so to ensure audio and visual quality, please carefully review the DVDs before you submit them.

SLATES: Slates optional.

CREDITS: Include the main title and end credits.

PICTURE FORMAT: Picture must be submitted as 4x3, Letterbox or 16x9, if your show originally aired in that format. Picture formats must be properly labeled on the DVDs.

- program title
- episode title (if applicable)
- Juried 80
- original airdates
- length of submitted DVD

Both feature-length programs and shorts may be eligible, dependent upon acceptance as a candidate. Acceptance as a candidate by the jury makes the program ineligible to compete in any other nonfiction special or series program area. (Programs not accepted for candidacy will be notified prior to the distribution of ballots in early June and may opt to enter in a regular nonfiction category or area.) A series episode accepted as a candidate may not compete as part of its originating series and will not be designated as a series episode. If one filmmaker produces the complete series, then the complete series should be entered. Programs must have aired during the eligibility year (June 1, 2011 – May 31, 2012).

The jury will review the submissions and select up to five nominations. There may be one or no winner.

Emmys to a maximum of four producers.

Eligibility will be established at the time a program is accepted as a candidate.

SPECIAL VISUAL EFFECTS AWARDS

The Special Visual Effects Emmys are awarded to recognize outstanding achievement and innovation in the art of both digital Visual Effects and mechanical Special Effects.

Category 89 OUTSTANDING SPECIAL VISUAL EFFECTS

This award is to honor the overall achievement of the special visual effects within effects driven programs or series episodes where special visual effects are routinely present, essential to the storytelling, easily identifiable, and could not have been produced without the integration of special visual effects into the production.

Programs in this category could include shows dealing with space travel, supernatural, creatures, fantasy themes, super hero powers, and/or CG or puppeteered creatures, etc., and have extensive use of computer graphics, virtual sets (environments, which are created almost entirely in the computer, and could include performers shot on green or blue screen), and large-scale pyrotechnic and mechanical special effects.

Category 90 OUTSTANDING SPECIAL VISUAL EFFECTS IN A SUPPORTING ROLE

This award is to honor the overall achievement of the special visual effects in programs or series episodes, where those effects are used on a more modest scale, play a supporting role contributing to the storytelling, and are often photorealistic and invisible to the viewer. A supporting program may include set extensions, (the creation, enhancement or augmentation of a practical location or physical set), sky replacements, atmospheric phenomenon, scientific visualizations, crowd replication, fire, smoke elemental enhancement, and similar effects. Supporting SVE programs use their effects more sparingly to help create the setting, environment, or mood of a given scene, or to illustrate a scientific principle, but the program does not require the use of special visual effects to tell the story.

RULES AND PROCEDURES FOR BOTH CATEGORIES:

Programs may enter individual episodes in either category, regardless of program length or number of episodes that aired, providing that the program meets the criteria of the category. Therefore, an “effects driven” program (as described above in Category 89) may not enter their invisible or supporting effects in Category 90.

Programs may submit up to two episodes in the appropriate category.

The Special Visual Effects Peer Group Executive Committee (PGEC) reserves the right to change an entry's category or disqualify it, should they feel that the entry was submitted in the wrong category.

Fully animated programs and main title sequences are not eligible in either Category 89 or 90.

Nominations are determined by a panel of volunteers from the SVE Peer Group who attend a screening of all PGEC vetted entries within each category.

Winners are determined by vote open to the entire membership of the SVE Peer Group via an “at-home” online viewing of the nominated entries.

Emmy statues are awarded to the principal contributors directly involved with and primarily responsible for the visual effects achievement.

Up to nine individuals may be included on the entry; however, the following rules and guidelines apply:

- An entry may include no more than four Visual Effects Supervisors and/or Visual Effects Producers total, among the nine entrants.
- Any entry where the Special Effects and/or Creature Effects play a significant role must include the relevant department heads. Special Effects Supervisors do not count towards the maximum number of overall Visual Effects Supervisors.
- Entries should include representatives of the hands-on artists, special effects technicians, and support staff that executed the work in addition to the supervisors who managed them. No network or channel promotions/package may be included in the entry.
- Entries, which do not include hands-on artists, may be asked to justify this exclusion in writing.
- Entrants must be in job categories, which are eligible for membership in the Special Visual Effects peer group.

The Special Visual Effects Peer Group Executive Committee (PGEC) reserves the right to confirm the eligibility of the entrants from their contributions.

VIDEO SUBMISSION MATERIALS:

One HDCAM tape with:

- Bars and Tone
- 1920 x 1080 program material, for broadcast on HDCAM format videotape.
- Aspect ratio as aired: 16 x 9 or 4 x 3 (pillar box).
- 23.97 frames per second

One NTSC DVD copy of the above HDCAM tape. Content must exactly match the HD tape submission.

Entries shall be no more than 7 minutes in duration. Submissions incorporating effects from more than one episode are not allowed. Entries may be edited to highlight the key visual effects of the program within their dramatic context. Each entry must be “as aired” with sync audio and surrounding shots in their correct order. Clip reels with soundtrack embellishments or individual effects shots edited out of context are not allowed.

For series, two-hour pilots or special extended length episodes may be submitted as a single episode, provided that they originally aired in one continuous time block with a single main title card and a single end credit roll. A two-parter, each part with its own main title and end credits, cannot be entered as a single, extended-length episode; rather, each part is considered a stand-alone episode.

Each submission may include up to 3 minutes of “before & after” material, demonstrating visually how the work was achieved. The “before & after” section must follow the “as aired” section after 2 seconds of black, and must be included within the 7 minute total submission length. This "before & after" section may not include any on-camera interviews or "talking heads," but may be accompanied by music and/or voice-over narration. The "before & after" section may demonstrate only the shots which were shown in the submission's "as aired" section.

You may include a slate with the name of the entry at the head of the submission. No other slate, title card, or superimposed text shall be included within the body of the submission that wasn't as originally aired, but may be included in the "before & after" section only to better illustrate the creative process. The entry may not include the names of any entrants, Special Visual Effects facilities, or company logos. This includes the slate at the beginning and within the before & after material.

Do not combine multiple entries into a single DVD or HDCAM. Each entry must be presented on its own separate DVD and HDCAM tape.

WRITTEN SUBMISSION MATERIALS:

Each entry may also include a brief written description of the program's visual effects that corresponds to the DVD and HDCAM. This is especially important for entries, which do not include before & after material in their video presentation. This document may contain visual representations of how the effects were accomplished, and it may include storyboards, diagrams and still photographs that pertain specifically to the shots being described. Entrants should remember that judges will be given no more than a few minutes to review this material before screening your entry. It is recommended that entrants use large text, emphasizing pictures instead of words, and focus on the key achievements in a concise and informative manner.

The written material must be submitted on paper, and as a printable Adobe Acrobat PDF digital file on a CD-ROM disc. The printed material will be made available to the nomination panels, and the PDF file will be available online for our members to download and read prior to final at-home voting.

STUNT COORDINATION

Category 91 OUTSTANDING STUNT COORDINATION

PLEASE NOTE: Submissions must be under 10 minutes. If longer than 10 minutes the submission will be returned for editing at the discretion of the Television Academy.

Please note: The content of the Emmy reel MUST be from the episode and not from the prelude to the episode (teaser).

Individuals and production companies can submit on behalf of a stunt coordinator.

Credited stunt coordinator has final say on submission and edit.

The submission may contain a stunt(s) and/or stunt sequence(s).

You may omit non-essential material or stunt(s) and/or sequences(s).

You may NOT add any non-original as aired material.

No internal editing or enhancements may be made to the submission, i.e. sound/photo edit, slow motion enhancements, frame edits, etc.

You may submit more than one entry, but not of the same series or program.

Miniseries, two-parters, or “to be continued” programs:

You may submit from all sequences of a miniseries or two-part episode as long as the above guidelines are followed. Additionally, you MAY omit nonessential material, stunt(s), and/or stunt sequence(s).

You may NOT change the order of which the material was originally aired. This applies to all entries.

For questions or clarification please contact your stunt peer group governors or the awards department.

DEADLINE: The DVD masters are due by the entry deadline (May 4). If the DVDs are not ready or available by the entry deadline, the final deadline for receipt of the DVDs will be May 18, 2012. WGA entry rules pertaining to team size restrictions are applicable in comedy and drama series. Entrants must have, either by themselves or in conjunction with other story or teleplay writers, at least 50% credit-share of the entered program.

Some possible combinations:

teleplay credit for 1 writer and story credit for 1 writer = 60% for teleplay writer and 40% for story writer;

2-person shared writing credit for a teleplay and 2-person shared story credit = $60\%/2 = 30\%$ for each teleplay writer and $40\%/2 = 20\%$ for each story writer.

ADDITIONAL JURIED AWARDS

THE GOVERNORS AWARD

Entries are made by the Board of Governors, the Governors Awards nominating committee or individuals who may suggest recipients in a letter to the Academy Chairperson. Letters must be received by May 31.

During each year, the Board of Governors of the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences shall, at the Annual Emmy Awards Presentation during each year, grant one (1) award (the Governors Award) to an individual, company, organization or project for outstanding achievement in the arts and sciences or management of television which is either of an accumulative nature or so extraordinary and universal in nature as to go beyond the scope of the Emmy Awards presented in the categories and areas of achievement.

SYD CASSYD FOUNDERS AWARD

The Syd Cassyd Founders award was established to honor not only Mr. Cassyd as founder of the original Academy of Television Arts & Sciences, but also the award is intended to honor those Television Academy members who have made a significant positive impact on the Television Academy through their efforts and service over many years of involvement.

Members of the Executive Committee nominate and choose the recipient, with a final approval from the Board. The Executive Committee's decision must be unanimous. If no candidate gets unanimous approval, there is no award that year. The Television Academy Chairperson of the board is not eligible for the award while in office.

BOB HOPE HUMANITARIAN AWARD

The Bob Hope Humanitarian award was established to honor a member of the telecommunications industry whose philanthropic efforts exemplify Bob Hope's own decades-long altruism and positive impact on society. The award is given by the Television Academy and the Bob and Dolores Hope Charitable Foundation.

OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT IN ENGINEERING DEVELOPMENT

A jury of television engineers considers all engineering developments which have proven their efficacy during the awards year and determines which, if any, merit an Emmy statuette or an Emmy plaque. The entry deadline is May 31, 2012, and entry forms will be available at <http://www.emmys.tv/downloads> mid April, 2012.

Engineering awards may include: Charles F. Jenkins Lifetime Technical Achievement Award; Philo T. Farnsworth Corporate Achievement Award; Emmy statuette, Emmy plaque or certificate.

Programming and programmers who enlighten and educate, create awareness and motivate positive change on important social and health issues will be honored.

The Television Academy Honors is not a new category of Primetime Emmy® Award; it is separate and distinct from Emmy’s recognition of television excellence. Entry forms and instructions will be available in December 2012.

APPENDIX I

PROGRAM AWARD PRODUCER ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES

(Excludes Nonfiction Programming)

A priority of the Academy is preserving the value of the Emmy Award and insuring that those who are most deserving and actively involved are the ones honored with nomination.

Toward that end, the Academy has implemented a process by which eligibility is established, and determines and verifies the factors of credit and function. The Television Academy's goal is to be as inclusive as possible, while maintaining the diligence that is necessary to preserve the integrity of the Emmy Award.

ELIGIBILITY

Producer eligibility is determined by a combination of credit and function. To be eligible for nomination, each producer must submit a completed application. The process verifies that all nominees meet the following criteria:

1. Credit – The individual must receive an on-screen credit of: Executive Producer, Co-Executive Producer, Supervising Producer, Producer or Produced By and, in the case of a series, receive that credit on at least 50% of the episodes aired in the current eligibility year.

2. Function – To be eligible, a producer must have substantial or final control over creative and financial aspects of the production such as: creating, selling, casting, staffing, pre-production, production and post production. On a series, the individual must perform these producing functions on at least 50% of the episodes aired in the current eligibility year.

The following individuals are not eligible regardless of screen credit:

- Corporate Executives (i.e. studio executives, network executives, etc.)
- Professional Representatives (unless they qualify under Function #2 above)
- Concert promoters
- Producers from a medium other than television who have packaged and handed off key components of their production

In Comedy and Drama series, full time Executive Producers who have final creative authority over the writing process on at least 50% of the eligible episodes and Writer-Producers who perform verifiable producing services, as stated above, on multiple episodes, may be eligible. A producer, who also has received a “Created By” credit, but no longer works full time on the series, will be eligible as long as that producer meets the eligibility criteria on at least 50% of the eligible episodes in the first season of the series.

If, at the end of the vetting process, eligibility is a “close call,” the committee will err on the side of inclusion.

3. Producing Team Size Caps – The maximum size of the eligible show producing team is based on the average team size of eligible producers in the category over a prior five-year period. Vetted producers are then sequenced by function. Any exception to these limits would be based on the determination that all the members of the proposed team meet the highest level of the function criteria.

APPEALS PROCESS

Any producer who does not qualify can appeal. It will be the responsibility of the producer to provide verifiable documentation demonstrating that they meet the eligibility criteria.
